one Pollar and Fifty Cents, If paid in advance,
Two Dollars within the year.

if not paid until after the expiration of the ye will be charged.

LTNo paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the pub-TAll communications on the business office must be postpaid to secure attention. To Clubs, of ten or more, the paper will be furnished at a liberal reduction in price.

A Weekly Journal-Devoted to Politics, Literature, Agr

ONE COUNTRY ONE CONST.

BY BRADING & THOMSON.

POMEROY, THURSDA

MEIGS COUNTY TELEGRA

me, Commerce, Markets and General Intelligence. TION - ONE DESTINY."

$1.50 in Advance.

AUGUST 5, 1852.

VOL. 4.-NO. 30.

grant Printing, of everydescription will

OFFICE OF THE TELEGRAPH.

POMEROY, OHIO.

Bates of Advertising, ne squae (13 lines or less) three weeks, $1 00

One square, three months,
One square, three months,
One square, six months,
One square, one year,
One half column, one year,
Three-fourths of a column, one year,
One column year,

Old Chippewa.

Tune-"Rosin the Bow." We are up! Don't you hear the Whig thunder We come with a hearty huzza! hat foe ever heard without terror. The war-cry of Old Chippewa. at any cvil. ctown, where nobly he battled, evil. ... here gory he lay, The sople re-coho the thunder, And gather for Old Chippewa. From Mexico's snowy sierras, vales where they bask in the day, Comes the valor and virtue,

The glory of Old Carrie reli, bouth, East, and West, it arises; No faction that thunder can stay; It hails, with the blessings of freemen,

Their champion and choice-Chippewa. His breast has been ploughed by the British, And forty campaigns make him gray; But we'll wreath his high brow with the laurel, And glory in Old Chippewa.

When Mexico's millions were offered, From his country to lead him astray-"Though poor, I'll love, live, and die by her" Thus answered our old Chippewa.

The hero that can't lose a battle, Winfield wins the field in each fray; We'll be, while Scot fights for our freedom, Scott free with our old Chippewa. A Lundy's Lane Foss with the British-

A russ on Chapultepec's day-Thus the FEATHERS will fly from the Locos, When they come across old Chippewa. *Tis strange, though in stratagem able,

He can't make a FRINT in a fray; A fall, save when riddled with bullets, Ne'er happens to old Chippewa. With the high soul of honor to serve him.

And good sour his stomach to stay, Come Mexicans, British, or Locos, They're nothing to old Chippewa.

The Locos selected a leader, But their managing masters said nay, So they straw-stuffed the coat of a hero, And set it 'gainst old Chippewa.

Poor fellows! they're tired of their fetters, And shrink from the trick with dismay; All true-hearted Democrats spurn it, And rally round old Chippewa.

Home-toil, with the iron of England, Free-trade, Pierce would pierce and would slay: But Scott likes the ore of the Keystone-He used it at old Chippewa.

No despot will dare to insult us, With him who has bled to defend us. Our President-old Chippewa.

The pure, and the wise, and the noble, His country's best guardian and stay; In camp or in cabinet peerless, O, who is like Old Chippewa?

Make way! for a torrent is coming-The millions in battle array: Their glad shouts will soon cleave the welkin, For Victory and Old Chippewa.

New Song.

The man that fights and faints away May live some other part to play; But he that is in battle slain. Will never live to be the standard-bearer of the Democratic party in a Presidential campaign.

A Chapter on Blunders.

Electing a majority of Locofoco lawyers to the Legislature of the State of Ohio, who were totally incapacitated to make an honest living in the pursuit of their regular callings, was a blunder. The assaults upon Banks and Banking institutions, by the same body-taxing them out of existence and capital out of the State, was a blunder. Constructing a tax law, the provisions of which are amagonistical to the constitution which will bear as many constructions as the Chameleon has colors, thereby begetting litigation, was a blunder. The creation of laws, (and the tax law is going up and passing a substitute, was a dead upon the field, having been dragged landed at New York quietly, and when I officers were calling them over, and making are gathered:

proper legislation, was a blunder!

Legislative servants and officers and increased by solution and at last placed bis country's flag and at las

PERSONAL SKETCH OF GENERAL SCOTT. The Whigs of Delaware held a grand ratat which an eloquent speech was made by for his country? What was his reward old fellow-soldier, whom he Hon. John M. Clayton. After giving a brief account of the proceedings of the Nabrief account of the proceedings of the Na-

They for many years known Winfield Scot. No great coldier.—the greatest ceptal solution of the street of the stree Scott is a man whose experience in public affairs—independent of his mere learning from books—is equal to that of any member of the House of Representatives or the Senate of the United States. Ho has taken a deep interest in the political affairs of his enemies, and he was looked upon as a sayior, and they offered him this large sum of his enemies, and he was looked upon as a sayior, and they offered him this large sum of his enemies, and he was looked upon as a sayior, and they offered him this large sum of his enemies, and he was looked upon as a sayior, and they offered him this large sum of his enemies, and he was looked upon as a sayior, and they offered him this large sum of his enemies, and he was looked upon as a sayior, and they offered him this large sum of his enemies, and he was looked upon as a sayior, and they offered him this large sum of him was struck; and as he fell he exclained him was struck; and as he fell he exclained him was struck; and as he fell he exclained him was struck; and as he fell he exclained him was struck; and so him was struck; and as he fell he exclained him was struck; and so him was struck; and as he fell he exclained him this large sum of him was struck; and so he him was struck; and so he him was struck; and so he he was of him entities were lock.

Three different fires cecurred in one night with bayonets point to point, after they had they have when they had they here were lock.

The Hillsboro Gazette learned, which crushed other houses, and some affired away all the curridges for their bown of Mays-wille, two not suppose he was stung with resenting that try a soldier immediately before the united as a sayior, and they offered him this large sum of the United States. [Applause.] My country sum on an unkerned is the with bayonets point to point, after they had similarity with some point to point, after they had struct the with bayonets point to point, after they had struct the with bayonets point to point, after they had their two work their bayonet beautifully struct. resolved to leave the profession in which he advanced and said : " Take up the com- the ground.

merits, and those which entitle him to the gratitude of his country. He is a victorious be shed for no other country on earth. [Ap-placed—a soluter that never could be confined as a victorious be shed for no other country on earth. [Ap-placed—a soluter that never could be confined as a victorious be shed for no other country on earth. [Ap-placed—a soluter that never could be confined as a victorious be shed for no other country on earth. [Ap-placed—a soluter that never could be confined as a victorious be shed for no other country on earth. [Ap-placed—a soluter that never could be confined as a victorious be shed for no other country on earth. [Ap-placed—a soluter that never could be confined as a victorious be shed for no other country on earth. [Ap-placed—a soluter that never could be confined as a victorious be shed for no other country on earth. [Ap-placed—a soluter that never could be confined as a victorious be shed for no other country on earth. [Ap-placed—a soluter that never could be confined as a victorious be shed for no other country on earth. [Ap-placed—a soluter that never could be confined as a victorious be shed for no other country on earth. [Ap-placed—a soluter that never country is cause, and one who fying the nomination of Winfield Scott, will be shed for no other country on earth. [Ap-placed—a soluter that never country is cause, and one who fying the nomination of Winfield Scott, will be shed for no other country or earth. [Ap-placed—a soluter that never country is cause, and one who fying the nomination of Winfield Scott, will be shed for no other country or earth. [Ap-placed—a soluter that never country is cause, and one who fying the nomination of Winfield Scott, will be shed for no other country is cause, and one who fying the nomination of Winfield Scott, will be shed for no other country is cause. [Ap-placed—a soluter that never country is caused as a victorious of the nomination of which is caused as a victorious of the nomination of which is caused as a victorious of the never coun the water to be one of the greatest men of thusiastic Applause.] The Presidency of the age. His victories at Chippewa and Lundy's Lane, were accounted at the time cannot seduce me from that love of my own able civilian; a scholar and a gentleman.

Intervie power. For made a from that of the civil power. For made a from the State of Delaware.]

Wales, from the State of Delaware.]

Important Decision.—A case of so at variance with the constitution of the State, was n blunder!

When he came back from Mexico he was hard a noise above him. Important the contract was void and illegal.

When he came back from Mexico he was hard a noise above him. Important the contract was void and illegal.

When he came back from Mexico he was hard a noise above him. Important the contract was void and illegal.

Adjourning the Legislature without ma- now exhibits, and always will, the conse- to do service and battle for his country, as to do. He found thirty-one prisoners already there are 56 saws in operation, producing lated. The captain and crew of a suspicious- onety of "Regulators," to put a stop to the disking any provisions for meeting payments due and coming due, against the State, thus dreadful battle. Perhaps a year clapsed plause.]

Now exhibits, and always will, the course to do service and battle to the best and battle to the best and battle to the best apart. Scott called to all his soldiers about 30,000,000 feet.

Set apart. Scott called to all his soldiers about 30,000,000 feet.

Present, "not a man of you dare open your On Mississippi, above the mouth of the St. due and coming due, against the State, thus dreadful battle, Perhaps a year elapsed for feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfor feiting the credit of the State, was a blunfo enable him to perform any duty. He visit- battles, if I recollect his history, and they diors refused to answer, and the British offi- 15,000,000 feet. The passage of a corporation law, dated ed Europe, in order, if possible, to acquire made him President for eight years. Harthe third day of May, and which reads to more health. To this day, however, the rison fought one at him without any effect. No soldier would 26,000 feet. take effect from and after the fifteenth of bridal arm cannot be lifted, except from the Tippecanoe. Taylor fought ten, Washing say a word, and you could no longer tell an The Chippewa river furnishes 20,000,000, acquitted Bishop Doane of the charges brought at the following rates: 160 acres, $137; 80 acres, next May, delaying the enforcement of the low. I pass over the many skirmishes ton eight—I speak of pitched battles—and law for a year, unless changed by an extra in which he was engaged—and I have no Scott, if I count right, ten. Of those that I session of the Legislature, was a blunder! doubt he has passed through hundreds of en- have named, none but himself received a life was taken, he would take the life of an does not include laths, shingles, square tim- with these three reverend prelates against pro-The proposition introduced to appropriate gagements commonly called battles-for I wound in battle. I heard Taylor say his Englishman when he returned to his own ber. &c. the State arms to Kossuth, begeining therety bad feelings between this country and to some others and he came out ragged—hat, panishons I have mentioned, and to some others and he came out ragged—hat, panishons, was asserted to be Gen. Lopez's second with again attack the city of Matamoras, and prepinvasion, was asserted to be Gen. Lopez's second ormidable powers in Europe, which would which occurred during the Mexican war - and jacket, were all cut up-but still the old ceeded to Washington, and drew the Act of the balance is floated down the Mississippi arations are making to give him a warm reception, in command, is now in Washington, where, it is result, most likely, in wars-besides disarm- From Vera Cruz to the city of Mexico, Win- hero's body was whole. Jackson did not Congress with his own hand, which author- for St. Louis and a market 'all along shore,' The cholera has made its appearance on the Guad- said, he will reside in future. ing the military of the State, to say the least field Scott contended against the enemies of receive a scratch, nor have I read that his ized him to retailiste upon the English. He where it meets with fair and paying prices, aloung river, and created considerable alarm. The ______ Sixteen deaths from cholera occurred on his country with varying success, amidst clothes were touched. But Scott has been immediately wrote a deliberate order, stating Promising reforms—advocating but one difficulties almost unexampled in history, wounded and shot down in battle. Scott, at that if a hair from the head of one of those on the Western frontier. New York, July 23, and several others who were session of the Legislature every two years— and penetrated, with a small army of 10,000 the battle of Lundy's Lane, was shot through Irishmen was hurt, he would take the lives take place at Toronto from the 21st to the holding two sessions in one year—increasing men, into an empire of eleven millions of the body, and nearly all the blood that was of just so many Englishmen whom he had 24th September. The prizes to be awarded contain the 350th coroner's inquest for the pres-

Speech of Hon. John M. Clayton. people who were completely subdued, and action at Lundy's Lane wh compelled to make such treaty as the gov- his thigh to pieces, and he ernment of this country proposed to dictate. the marks to his grave. W What was the reward of a faithful soldier ing with me, General Scott e ification meeting at Wilmington, on the 23d, who had done so much and suffered so much to call and see me. I intro tional Convention to which he was a Dele- than 30,000 men, and took from him-when Lane, was brought about, as gate, Mr. CLAYTON proceeded to speak of the fighting was all over, and there was no son the battle was fought. more necessity for a great general-took able to get Scott to conven from him the command of that army, and ject of the battles he had Having said thus much, fellow-citizens, I directed him to submit himself-Major Gen- wounds he had received, as proceed to the question - Shall we ratify the decision of the Baltimore Convention in tribunal of petry officers. And how did he showed that the topic was us favor of Winfield Scott, or not? I intend to show himself? Instead of disregarding, as when appealed to by a broth-submit a few reasons why we should ratify many would have done, he obeyed the man- fought and bled with him. that decision. In the first places I under take date which sought to disgrace him, and we in say—if my humble testimony can be about the battle. It appeared Lieutenant of the battle of the civil power. If there be any if have for many years known Winfield Scott, of New-Jersey, and know him to be scott, of New-Jersey, and know him to be another, it is that he as always, by his ex long that he is no object than the potential responsible to the civil power than the potential responsibility. The reason of his friends. There is no ferocity in Winfield Scott, no about the battle. It appeared Lieutenant of the hard pursued the battle. The reason of the hard pursued the Marquis all the sale of the civil power than the potential responsibility. The reason of the hard pursued the Marquis and the which than the varieties partition.

Can relie the varieties partition of his military tife.

There is no ferocity in Winfield Scott, no about the battle. It appeared Lieutenant violent self-will, refusing to listen to the civil power. If there be any of the best veterans from the Peninsula vice of his friends. There is no ferocity in Winfield Scott, no about the battle. It appeared Lieutenant vice of his friends. There is no ferocity in Winfield Scott, no about the battle gluents of his military tife.

There is no ferocity in Winfield Scott, no about the battle gluents of his crime. He has graduated at several pendent of the civil Quantrill—a name familiar in the another in the another than the wind of the wind that the list of the wind that the list of the civil Quantrill—a name familiar in the another was not completely and the wind that the list of the wind that the wind that the list of the wind that the list of the wind that the list of the my own knowledge, to be a man as pure in you think we should have come back with heart, as high minded and honorable in all a considerable number of black eyes and dier who has suffered for his country, who Now, my fellow citizens, without attemptby the greatest Captain of the other side of for no other people God ever made. [En- ordinate to the civil power. You have a behind a tree, and laid there until the battle saw him for the first time after he had re- each man tell his name, the object being to The number of saws running on the Wisswindling the State, and expecting to retain power by playing off upon the credulity of the people - locoforg members of the less of Cerro Gordo. Cherubusco, anecdote of what occurred in my room at the people - locoforg members of the less of the the people.—Locofoco members of the last of the battles of Cerro Gordo, Cherubusco, anecdote of what occurred in my room at day, and decidedly the most successful our size, and a good traveler.

Legislature will find out at the ballot box Chepulsepec, &c; and, lastly, the bloody blunders, fatal to their own political ascend- fight which occurred in the city of Mexico, gallant one who had fought under Scott, and —and a man who has shed more of this own During the post year 21,795 persons were citizens of that place the importance of establish. 000 worth of property.

ad shauered a mean and dirty act. But he is generous. Meigs Co. Celegraph. ie was talk. the language of another, e she honor "In battle, the Lion; d him to his

In mercy, the Lumb." not seen for Let the English whom he conquered in inquired of two great battles answer whether he is not a or Landy's merciful and generous conqueror. No man's r what rea- name stands higher in England than that of never been Gen. Winfield Scott, although he has so the sub- many times humbled their pride. Ask the been perpetrating the most unparalelled rescali- receipts, etc., amounting to $21,000. u. or the Mexican, now, his opinion of Winfield Scott, nediately and he will tell you he considers him the clae, and most merciful, kind, and generous conqueror having married a respectable widow in Cincinnati, resolved to leave the profession in which he had every prospect of brilliant success for the purpose of fighting the battles of his country, and, if necessary, shedding his blood in her defence.

My fellow citizens, I stand here and support Winfield Scott, not only for the had taken it, suppose we had sent port Winfield Scott, not only for the winfield Scott, n and statesman, but because I know him of were commanded by Winfield Scott, don't am about to ask you to ratify the homination classes of men in this country. He is a poor born at Allentown, Pa., and her father, a Ger- Liverpool in seven and a half days.

his intercourse with his fellow-men as any bloody noses? [Laughter.] Now look at has achieved more victories for her, and ing to do justice to the candidate whom this tionary soldier, named James M'Donald was found Sir Charles Attison. man I ever knew. [Enthusiastic applause.] this picture, and what do you find to surpass done more service than any other man, ex-Viewing him, then, as a man qualified for it? He rejected all these offers, and said, cept George Washington, that she has ever put the question—Will you ratify the nomination of the street, and taken to the patent has been granted at washington, that she has ever put the question—Will you ratify the nomination of the street, and taken to the patent has been granted at washington, that she has ever put the question—Will you ratify the nomination of the street, and taken to the patent has been granted at washington, that she has ever put the question—Will you ratify the nomination of the street, and taken to the patent has been granted at washington. the office, I go on to consider his other "I am an American soldier, and my blood produced—a soldier that never could be connation? All those who are in favor of rational for a process of making Sugar out of radian corn.

West Cambridge, Mass., and had been to Wash.

—In an affray at Novabea, Miss., W. J. Jom-

Hon, gentleman was followed by Senator

when they occurred among the most remark- native land, with which, thank God, I was You have a man, who, although himself a terest has lately been tried in one of the an apostate from Roman Catholicism, and a talable events of the war of 1812. With an born, and which I have retained from my Protestant Episcopalian, has never suffered courts of law in New York. Dr. Elijah Ing. ented and violent opponent of Popery, was inferior force at Chippewa he defeated Gen.
Riley, although his troops were composed of the best veterans of the British army.—

The French physicians have proven that raham, the editor of the National Democrat, and which I have retained from the Protestant Episcopanian, has never sunered courts of the Wille raham, the editor of the National Democrat, and which I have retained from the Protestant Episcopanian, has never sunered courts of the Wille raham, the editor of the National Democrat, and which I have retained to the proven that raham, the editor of the National Democratic paper lately started in that of the Protestant Episcopanian, has never sunered courts of taw in New York.

The French physicians have proven that raham, the editor of the National Democratic paper lately started in that of the Protestant Episcopanian, has never sunered courts of taw in New York.

The French physicians have proven that raham, the editor of the National Democrat, and protestant Episcopanian, has never sunered courts of taw in New York.

The French physicians have proven that raham, the editor of the National Democrat, and protestant Episcopanian, has never sunered courts of taw in New York.

The French physicians have proven that raham, the editor of the National Democrat, and protestant Episcopanian, has never sunered courts of the II have the proven that raham, the editor of the National Democrat, and protestant Episcopanian, has never sunered courts of the II have the proven that raham, the editor of the National Democrat, and protestant Episcopanian, has never sunered courts of the II have the proven that raham, the editor of the National Democrat, the protestant Episcopanian has never sunered courts of the II have the proven that raham, the editor of the National Democrat, the provent that the proven And Scott achieved this triumph not merely the ingratitude with which this gallant old tion and Bill of Rights, that all men have a New York aldermen, for fifty dollars, be- suit for libel. Abundant evidence of the truth by the valor of his soldiers, but by his own soldier was treated, unless you refer to Jusinimitable skill in that splendid battle. It tinian and his General, Bellisarius. To be consciences, and therefore he maintained the subscription list on the establishment of the setting aside all this, the court gave a verdiet that has been, among military men, ever since sure, he did escape without his eyes being Catholics in Mexico in the enjoyment of paper, which was to advocate the election of Newman was guitty of publishing a libel, thereby the theme of unqualified admiration. The pulled out, but he is a poor man, and if he their religious rights. [Applause.] You the neminee of the Baltimore Convention declaring Achilli innocent. Now mark the semanner in which the battle was fought you had chosen to take the Presidency of Mexico, have no fanatic or party bigot to vote for, for President. The course taken by the quel. Public opinion has branded Achilli as a vilhave no time to hear, nor I to describe; but he might have been one of the millionaires but a great, good, gallant, and glorious editor had been unsatisfactory to the de- lain. His chapel in London is closed for want of the present time; and indeed, it would leader, and a man alike able to manage the fendant, who complained of the personal at- worshippers. And in the language of a cotemthere was no battle which exhibited more be difficult to estimate what he might have civil affairs of his country, and to lead an tacks which had been made upon himself porary "he stands unmarked as a sensual, hypo-committee to draft a code of school laws. Resoconsumate skill and address than was shown by Scott when he conquered Riley. [Applause.] The next great battle in which this distinguished warrior showed his skill.

The next great battle in which this council moved for a judgment, principal the branch of Jackson, it? You have been admirers of Jackson, it? You have been admirers of Jackson, that the subscription sentitive and principal the branch of the government, and subscription sentitive and the subscriptio was the battle of Niagara Falls, July 25, Harrison, and Taylor, and God knows I of the Irish who have fought under him, but was contrary to the provisions of the revised scorn," 1813. In that night of horrors, when more shall continue to be, while there is life in I refer you to this incident. After the battle statutes, C. 1, p. 153, sec. 6, which provides men fell on the battle-field than perhaps my body, an admirer of the character of of Queenstown Heights, where Scott first that "it shall be unlawful for any person to have ever fallen in any struggle of equal Zachary Taylor. But I cannot be made in- distinguished himself, when he had been contribute any money for any purpose innumbers of British and American troops, sensible to the merits of Winfield Scott. All overwhelmed with British regulars, and tended to promote the election of any perone of them.) which the best legal minds in Winfield Scott suffered the loss of two hors- whose opinion is worth a straw, consider taken prisoner, while on his way to Quebec, son of ticket. The Judge pronounced the State have pronounced a nullity; because es from under him, was first wounded in the that a better man never lived, and that he is with the soldiers who were taken prisoners judgment for the defendant thereby deciding ties in the south and west, has at length been "eaged" for six years. His last crime was bigamy; But this age has produced. Is not this a char, and, a few weeks afterward, an interesting girl ter, who acter worthy of honor? I love him more at Paducah, Ky. It has since been ascertained into a for his mercy to the vanquished, than for that he is no other than the mountains resse pan-talk about; that is the pride for which some living in Philadelphia, who is 108 years old. She man, lived to be 107 years old.

POMEROY, OHIO.

THURSDAY,AUGUST 5, 1852.

Glennings.

Scott paid his fare.

eitement in England recently, and the result proves barrels of the revolver in Titley's hand. that villamy does not go unpunished, even when can citizens, under Trinidad Flores, chief alcalde be encouraged. of Reynosa. The robbers, when arrested, exhibited full, written authority for all these depreda- intend, at an early day, to pay a tribute of respecting before Jessup's regiment, and contending sick almost to death in the public service. mediately suspecting something was wrong, The Lumber Trade of the Mexican forces. Mr. Waddell, the American be extensively distributed. Mr. Clay was at one ion for taxing Real Estate of Ohio—and between the muskets fourteen feet apart, he The whole power of the government was he can procure all the facts time Grand Master of the order for the United being under the necessity of, afterwards, was struck through the body and left for against him who had done so much. He men were called together, and the British Mineral Point Tribune, the following facts and documents, will leave for Washington, to lay States. them before the government.

The New Orleans papers contain accounts county Pa., died a Reading, on the 9th of July, By the repeal of the old Tax-Law and not was over. The sufferings which he under- turned from Mexico, he was pale and ex- obtain from the sound of the voice, and from consin river and its tributaries above Wine- of a most fiendish outrage recently perpetrated after a brief illness. He was for a short time providing for the collection of unprid taxes, went may be seen, by men who know him, ceedingly feeble. That gigantic form, six the brogue of those who answered, who were bago, Portage county, in 1851, was 77, upon the dead bedies of the unfortunate victims bago, Portage county, in 1851, was 77, upon the dead bedies of the unfortunate victims bago, Portage county, in 1851, was 77, upon the dead bedies of the unfortunate victims of the steamer St. James. The bedies was rifled —— Cincinnati is so over of the steamer St. James. The bodies was rifled - Cincinnati is so overrun with desperadoes, dollars, which might have been saved, by terrible hemorrhage has left the lineaments preparing for the grave; but, thank God, he the former might be executed as traitors to On Fox river, commencing at Depere. of watches, money, rings, car-drops, and every and so inefficient in her police, that a number of of his countenance of a pallid hue, and he is now as hearty, hale, and able, and willing their country, which it had been determined and including Wolf river and its tributaries, thing of any value whatever, and horribly mutilooking fishing schooner, had been arrested on graceful rows that mightly occur there.

The Episcopal Diocese of New Jersey has against him by the bishops of Ohio, Virginia, and 8:59: 40 acres, 835.

ency and as to the success of the party, irreparable blunders!—Steubenville Herald: the arms of his country in the midst of a on a visit. He had received a shot in the Thank God he is proud to do 19,453 were intemperate.

THE REPORT OF THE PARTY OF THE

Tr A horrible affray occurred, July 18, at Will sburg, Washington county, Ky. Eight or ten sersons were playing cards, when a dispute art su and they proceeded to the free use of knives and pistofs. Twenty or more shots were fired. One man was killed instantly, and three others were supposed to be marially wounded.

By Mr. E. N. Payne, of Rochester, N. Y., was IT The notorious bigamist and swindler, who, robbed at the Delaware House, Albany, a few under the assumed name of Dr. B. J. Hayne, has days since, of a pocket book containing bills, a r A malignant disease, resembling cholers, is prevailing, to an aterming extent in Charlotte, and adjoining counties, Virginia. A large num ber of slaves have been carried off with it. One gentleman lost 40.

3. In answer to reports circulated in New York ince the unexpected departure of Kossuth, that he had left secretly, to avoid payment of his debts, his treasurer, Paul Hajhie, publishes a card, stating that every pecuniary claim against Governor Kossuth was liquidated before he left.

To The Chillicothe Advertiser contains an account of a man 65 years of age cradling five a res' and thirty-seven rods of heavy wheat, in one day, 177 The New York Mirror says, that in the port of New York, twenty times as much stuff is sold to Western dealers, as pure French bran ly, (gennine as imported,) as arrives there from foreign countries. The adulteration is effected after the liquors are taken out of bond, and a Custom House certificate for a single balf pipe, exhibited to the customer, suffices to cover twenty gallons of the spurious to one of the genuine article.

The Cincinnati papers complain bitterly of righ taxes and high rents Many of the working men are compelled, on account of high rents, to seek homes in Covington and Newport, and their landlords cannot afford to lesson the ronts while

--- The Yellow Fever has made its appearance at Havans, but is a mild form. - The World's Fair in New York will be opened on the 2d of May, 1852. - Three different fires occurred in one night

Clyde, an immense steamship, to be called the

The Norfolk Beacon states that a Revolut Queen of England on the Scottish historian, now

ington, from which place to Philadelphia, Gen. mison, the postmaster at that place was killed by a Mr. Tilley; and John Malone, jr., was also The Achilli trial has produced a great ex- killed by the accidental discharge of one of the

- A general 'burst up' is looked for between Important Decision .- A case of some in- courts of law favor the criminal. Dr. Achitu, this government and Mexico, by those intimate with the present state of affairs.

- The French physicians have proven that the town raise part of the tax for the support of The Mexican and Indian robbers, who are schools; that the normal school system be exthe authors of the late massacres along the Rio tended; liberal aid be given to teachers' institutes, Grande, have been arrested by a party of Mexi- and that the formation of union schools should tions, from Gen. Avalos, commander-in-chief of to the memory of Henry Clay. Invitations will has been substituted for whisky in the army. ___ Land Warrants are selling in New York

---- Some citizens recently demolished the Powder Magazine on Vine-street hill, Cincinnati. -Gen. Gonzales, who, during the Cuban crops in Texas are remarkably fine. The Indians board the steamer United States, which arrived at wick, states that an extensive fire broke out there TT The Ironton Register is urging upon the outthe 22d of July, which destroyed over $500,-